

Dean Chalmers – Program Manager, Energy Systems

Dean has a background in mechanical engineering and has received his PMP certification. After 20 years of working on international multi-discipline astronomical technology projects, the environmental impacts facing our planet motivated him to join the VC to apply his expertise and knowledge to support our clients' energy transition projects.

